8 Letter no As-1867/28-29 dated 21/1/29 from the Deputy commr Kanara Dt requesting sanction to the proposal of the Kumta mcl to admit the expenditure of Rs 79-5-9 paid as grain allowance to the Scavengers of the municipality during 1925 26 but since objected to by the Comptr for want of Govt sanction

1 The high price allowance was being granted up to oct 1921, when the same was merged with the pay in Go no 7lc 6-53-S+A.5-21-11 dated 9 10 21 and the same concession was extended to the full time servants of the mcls and taluk boards in the State in Go no L 2395-416 Rs 11 21 11 dated 24/10/21

2 The allowance in question was paid during the months of Dec 1925, Janry, Feb, March 26 and the necessity for has been explained as due to the prevalence of high price of foodstuffs then

M

3 The authority under which the allowance was paid during most portion has not been stated

4 Municipal councils may sanction increase of pay and allowances without reference to Govt, as per Go of July 1924 but the expenditure in question does not seem to be one such, as time is required to show on record

This Municipality has been sanctioning unauthorised expenditure for many years and some stringent orders seem called for, that from a particular date to be mentioned say from 1st July 1929, all unauthorised expenditure will have to be paid for by the persons responsible for the same & that mere resolutions of the Council ratifying the same subsequently will have no value. This from the President should be put in mind of this when as soon as they are appointed & their signatures obtained for this & the Deputy President

The Municipality shall submit every half year a statement that no unauthorised expenditure has been incurred by the Municipal Council or they should

RR 23/1/29

Sir,

I have the honor to state that the President Municipal Council Gubbi reports that a total sum of Rs 79-5-9 as grain allowance was paid to the scavengers of the Municipality between the months of December 1925 and March 1926 that this expenditure was objected to by the Comptroller during his audit in the year 1925-26 on the ground that sanction of Govt was necessary for incurring the expenditure and request that sanction of Government may be obtained in the matter

I therefore request you to kindly accord sanction to the proposal of the Municipal Council The copy of their - resolution is also enclosed

I have the honor to be,

sir,

Your most obedient servant
